Traced to California, Arrested and Part of the Stolen Money Recovered.

Express Messenger's Watch Found in Possession of Albert D. Sly, a Notorious Ex-Convict -A Female Accomplice Also Captured.

NOTORIOUS ROBBER CAPTURED.

Albert D. Sly, Leader of the Glendale, Mo Train Bandits Arrested in California. Sr. Louis, Dec. 30.-The leader of the gang which robbed Adams Express Messenger Mulrennan on the Frisco road at Glendale, a suburb of St. Louis, on the night of Nov. 30, is under arrest. A female accomplice is also in custody, and the capture of the remainder of the gang seems only a matter of time.

The leader turns out to be Albert D. Sly. a noted ex-convict from the Missouri penitentiary. The latest series of exploits by Sly and his fellow-bandits began with the robbery of the street-car barns at Omaha in October, in which they used dynamite, and secured a large amount of money. They committed a robbery on the Metropolitan street-car barns in Kansas City in the same month, and then came pany, on the Missouri Pacific railroad, near Omaha, on the night of Nov. 4, and the American express robbery, near Western Union Junction, Wis., on the night of Nov. 12. In all of these robberies Sly figured as a leader, and his engine of war almost invariably was dynamite. After the robbery at Western Union Junction William A. Pinkerton found out that Sly, in 1888, while acting as driver for the American Express Company at St. Joseph, Mo., defaulted with a package containing $20,000. At that time, after a long search, Sly was apprehended in California by the Pinkertons. He was returned to Missouri and sentenced to four years in the Missouri penitentiary at Jefferson City. On coming out it was learned Sly became associated with a gang of burglars who made their headquarters around Kansas City and

On the theory that Sly was possibly concerned in the robbery at Western Union Junction, the Pinkertons quietly began investigation toward locating Sly, and sucgeeded in tracing him to St. Louis a few days previous to the Giendale robbery on the Frisco road. Pinkerton's force and the force of Chief of Police Harrigan, of St. Louis, soon joined hands, and some days after the Glendale affair Chief Harrigan received valuable information from a furniture-dealer, who furnished houses on the installment plan, concerning a woman and four men renting a house on Swan avenue, in St. Louis, on the outskirts of the city. This furniture man had fitted up the house on Swan avenue, and the people occupying the same had mysteriously disappeared after the robbery, leaving the furniture and everything behind them.

SHE WAS A BLONDE. This Chief Harrigan investigated very carefully, and it was found that the house had been occupied by a blende woman, supposed to be the wife or mistress of one of the gang of four men. They disappeared from the house three days after the Glendale robbery. Their baggage was traced to the depot, and the check numbers showed that they were all bound West. Chief Harrigan's men traced them to Omaha, where the party split up, taking different routes West. Chief Harrigan's men managed to get accurate descriptions of the fugitives, and Sly's identity was fixed beyond a question, as also the identity of the woman connected with the Robert A. Pinkerton at this time was in California and on the eve of departure for the East, but remained and assisted the San Francisco police, who had been communicated with. Sly, it was ascertained, bad gone by way of Denver to southern California. With this information R. A. Pinkerton went at once to San Diego and searched that place thoroughly. He then went to Los Angeles, arriving there a week ago. For several days he kept up a search of the saloons, gambling-houses and places that kind, without success. Through a breakage in the railroad there had been no mail delivered for three days at Los Ange-les, and on Saturday last Mr. Pinkerton. accompanied by Ross Whitaker, of the San Francisco detective force, and an officer of Los Angeles, took up a watch in the postflice and express offices at that point. All three were furnished with photographs and accurate descriptions of Sly.

On the afternoon of Saturday Mr. Pinkerton observed a man in the postoffice at Los Angeles who answered the description of Sly, and resembled the old photograph which he had very closely. Tapping him on the shoulder, and stepping up and taking his hand so the man could not attempt to use a gun, as Sly is a desperate character, Mr. Pinkerton addressed him by the name of Sly. Sly denied his identity and said his name was A. S. Denton. That settled it in Pinkerton's mind at once, for Sly's right name is Adelber Denton Sly. He was at once taken into custody and searched. In his possession was found $2,000 and a lot of personal property, and on his person was found the gold watch taken from the person of messenger Mulrennan, of the Adams Express Company, after he had been injured by the explosion of dynamite at the robbery Nov. 30, at Glendale, Mo. Sly tried to throw the watch away, but it was recovered by Pinkerton. Sly's arrest was kept very quiet until to-day, with a view of getting the remainder of the gang. Sly refused to make any statement whatever, knowing full well that, being an ex-convict in the Missouri penitentiary, his next imprisonment, if convicted, means for life. The search of the house on Swan avenue gave Chief Harrigan positive evidence against the thieves, as in this house was found parts of paper and other evidence taken from the express car which had not been thoroughly destroyed. The finding of the messenger's watch in Sly's pocket fixes the crime on him very strongly. Chief of Police Harrigan, of St. Louis, and the Pinkertons here feel confident that it is now a compara-into custody. RECORDS OF THE ROBBERS. Adelbert D. Sly is better known in the crooked fraternity as Bert Sly. He is a native of Wisconsin and was born and raised near Oshkosh. After committing the express robbery in St. Joseph, for which he was sent to the penitentiary in 1884, his family moved to St. Joseph, where they now reside. Since his release from the penitentiary in Missours he has been twice in custody in St. Joseph, once for highway robbery and once for burgiarly, and he is at the present time a fugitive from justice from St. Joseph, where his wife and three children now reside. His father and mother now live at Independence. His avowed ambition was to be a second "Jesse James."

Capture of the Leader of the Gang That Robbed the 'Frisco Express Train.

Clever Detective Work by the Pinkertens and the St. Louis Police, Assisted by Officers at San Francisco and Los Angeles.

The desperado is thirty-five years of age, five feet six and a half inches high, weighs 140 bounds, dark complexion, brown eyes and black hair, and generally wears a dark mustache. He has a sear above the left eye and two false front upper teeth.

The other men associated with Ely in the robbery are equally desperate and equally well known to the police. Marion Redspeth, whose wife or mistress was to-day arrested in San Francisco, was first connected with the affair by the local detective force under Chief Desmond. In the use of explosives, etc., to complete the work of robbery at Glendale certain distinctive methods were observed which coupled the robbers with a gang which had been committing safe-robberies in the vicinity of St. Louis, in both Illinois and Missouri. Tracing these earberies in the vicinity of St. Louis, in both Illinois and Missouri. Tracing these earmarks down, it was found that a man answering Redspeth's description had been arrested in a small Illinois town for safe-cracking, but was released. This confirmed the detectives' suspicions, and they are now satisfied that Redspath is the man who handled the dynamite for the Gleudale affair. Redspath has done time in the Missouri penitentiary for grand larceny committed in Cooper county, and has relatives now living at Pisgah, Mo.

Another man, whom the detectives want for the robbery, but who is still at large, is L. R. Wilson, of Omaha, a man of notorious character, who has been concerned in several affairs, but has always managed to escape prison. Wilson's brother, C. F., is also known as a hard character, but whether he was concerned in this crime cannot be definitely stated, though the detectives will not lose sight of him for a time at any rate.

Coming down to a basis of figures, the detectives believe that five men were concerned in the robbery. Sly is under arrest. Redspeth is known to have been one of the gang, and Wilson, too. This leaves two men yet to be found, and it is asserted that the search for them will be pursued as relentlessly as ever and until they are all in prison. The woman caught in San Francisco is known to have been the housekeeper in the house rented here and already referred to. She has numerous glisses, but is beto. She has numerous aliases, but is be-lieved to have passed under the name of Maggie Williams.

ANOTER IMPORTANT ARREST.

Florence Waterman, the Woman-Accomplice, Captured at Oakland Cal. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 80 .- A woman giving the name of Florence Waterman has been arrested by detectives here, and it is claimed that she has not only acknowledged being the wife of Marion Redspeth. who is suspected of being one of the gang of train-robbers which held up the train at Glendale, Mo., Nov. 30, but has given information which may lead to the arrest of other members of the band in addition to Albert Sly, who was arrested last week in Los Angeles by detectives Pinkerton and Whitaker, and who was taken East on Sunday without the formality of extradition

On Dec. 14 detective Robert Pinkerton was in this city on a visit. When he was about to return east he received a telegram from Chief of Pelice Harrigan, of St. Louis, stating that the latter believed two of the Glendale robbers were on this coast. Subsequently similar information was wired to Chief of Police Crowley, giving a description of the men. Among other things the dispatch stated a trunk had been shipped to Oakland, Cal, to Marion Redspeth, but it was addressed to Florence Waterman, a woman supposed to be the robber's wife. At the request of Chief Harrigan, Chief of Detectives Lees, Crowley and Pinkerton were asked to co-operate in a search for the robbers. From further information received from Harrigan it was learned one of the men could be found at Los Angeles. Pinkerton and detective Whittaker therefore proceeded to that city, and there found Albert Denton Sly, one of the robbers, conducting a saloon. Whittaker and Pinkerton came up from Les Angeles Sun-day evening with Sly in charge. They were met at Modesto by Captain Lees, and Sly consented to go right on east without waiting extradition papers. Meanwhile, the detectives kept a lookout for the trunk, which was in the Wells-Fargo Express office, Oakland. The publication of a telegram telling of Sly's capture by Pinkerton, it is thought, put Redspeth on his guard and forced him to seek seclusion, but yes-terday the officers were rewarded by seeing florence Waterman walk into the Wellsargo office and inquire for the trunk. Not finding it, owing to the police having seized it, the woman left the express office and gave the officers a lively chase, though it was raining bard. She was finally arrested and brought to this city, where Captain Lees questioned her to-day. Captain Lees says there was clothing in the trunk, but declines to go into details concerning the contents. He denies that she gave any inormation regarding the suspected men, but says another effort will be made to induce her to tell what she must know.

OUTRAGE BY MASKED MEN.

Widow Forced to Sign Checks, Her Clothing Saturated with Coal-Oil and Set on Fire.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ATCHISON, Kan., Dec. 30.—About 2 o'clock yesterday morning two masked men entered the residence of Mrs. Jonathan Davis, a widow living in the extreme western part of Atchison county, and compelled her, at the muzzles of revolvers, to sign a number of checks, amounting to $600. Then they poured coal-oil on her clothing and set it on life. With great presence of mind Mrs. Davis grabbed a quilt, wrapped it around her and extinguished the flames. There is no clew to the perpetrators of the deed, although it is believed they are the same men who robbed John Killon, the bachelor farmer, on Christmas eve.

Suicide of a Banker.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. VALLEY FALLS, Kan., Dec. 30 .- Rufus Crosby, the wealthy banker, committed suicide, Monday afternoon, by hanging himself by a rope to a beam in his barn. Despondency and poor health were the causes. His family had carefully watched him for some months to prevent suicide. Mr. Crosby came to Valley Falls in 1854. and started the first store, which was burned out by Quantrell's men during the war. He had been Mayor of the city three terms, member of the Legislature, and was first vice-president c: the Kansas State Bankers' Association for the third term. He was one of the leading financiers, owning the finest residence here, several farms, and the Bank of Deposit. He leaves a wife and daughter, two brothers and a sister.

Arrested for the New Smyrns Murder, NEW SMYRNA Fla. Dec. 30 .- The town and whole country is wild with excitement over the arrest of Jenkins for the murder at the Packwood House. He was arrested for the third time to-day and is now on his way to Deland under guard of twentyfive armed men. Capt. W. O. Cooper, a Pinkerton man, has been working on the case for the past ten days. Cooper says he has information which will convict Jenkins of the crime, and it is rumored that Jenkins wil make a confession before the preliminary examination is held. A gnard of twenty men will surround De-land jail as long as Jenkins is confined there. Cooper refuses to talk until he has consulted with the county officers, who have offered a reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of the murderer.

Representative Warner Says that No Matter What Steps Republicans Take the Senate Will Be Organized by the Democrate.

Even if a Quorum Is Not Present Contested Election Cases Will Be Acted On.

Lively Time Expected on New Year's Day-Gov. Humphrey Requested to Call the Kansas Legislature to Choose a Senator.

THE NEW YORK OUTRAGE. How the Democrats Hope to Complete th Infamy Begun by the Courts.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, Dec. 30 .- Representative John DeWitt Warner, of New York city, who has just been added to the congressional ranks, and who is the personal and confidential friend of ex-President Cleveland, said to-day that he expected to see lively "racket" in New York State on New Year's day. The Democratic Legislature will not wait to make New Year's calls, but will assemble at noon on that day for a decisive test of strength. As Mr. Warner stated: "We are not yet out of the woods but we have the advantage of seeing several ways to get out, while the Republicans are in the woods with no possible means of getting out."

Mr. Warner thus explained how the clash was likely to come: The ranks of the Democratic and Republican Senators are now exactly balanced, and under ordinary circumstances the Democratic Lieutenantgovernor would be able to cast the deciding vote. But the trouble of New Year's day will be to secure a quorum, that a vote may be taken the Lieutenant-governor may determine the ontcome. The full ranks of the Democrats will not be sufficient to constitute a quorum, and until this quorum is present no business can be done and the Lieutenant-governor's prerogative of casting the final vote cannot be exercised. Nat urally, Mr. Warner says, the Republican Senators will decline to be present and aid in forming a quorum, for their absence will be the only plan open to them for blocking the control of the Democratic Senators. With the Republicans thus absenting them selves all legislative business would be paralyzed for a time, but Mr. Warner says there are several flank movements which the Democratic Senators may make in order to outgeneral the absentees. In the first place there is the hope that Senator Osberne, a Democrat whose title to a seat is yet in question, may have his rights confirmed by the courts before New Years' day, or so soon afterward that business may proceed, but there is much doubt of this. The next move in case Osborne's vote cannot be secured will be somewhat sensational in character. Mr. Warner says that while the law will not permit legislative business to be carried on in the absence of a quorum he doubts very much if the laws go to the extent of prohibiting less than a quorun of the members who are present and prepared to do business to go on and consider the subject of contested elections. There are several of these contests undecided, and if less than a quorum can do business under the law the Democratic Senators who are present can settle some of these contests and admit contesting Democrats n spite of the absence of the Republicans But even should this move prove inexped ent by reason of legal objections, there i another flank movement open to defeat the absentees. The Clerk of the Senate will organize the body by reading the names of Senators. It is the usual custom to include the names of contestants, such as Senator Osborne and others, and then set aside these names if there is no objection! to them. But the Democratic Senators will, of course, raise no objection, and the only way of securing an objection is for some one of the absent Republicans to come in and object to the seating of Oaborne or the others. But no sooner will this absentee put in an appearance for the purpose of making an objection than the quorum will be formed. The mere presence of the objector will in itself allow him to be counted in, making a quorum, and in that case business can pro-These expedients, pro and con, indicate what a lively game of politics will be played in New York State on New Years day. The calculations of the Democrats are based largely upon the view that every legislative assembly has a right to determine the question of its own membership. Thus far the courts have been dealing with this membership, and this authority of courts will continue until noon on Jan. 1, but after that hour, according to Mr. Warner, the jurisdiction of the court ceases and the State's Senate itself becomes the judge of its membership. Mr. Warner thinks that there are safficient moves open to the Democratic Senators to allow them to proceed with business, but he is free to admit that the Republican Senators can play a tre-mendously strong game by absenting themselves. But in any event he thinks public opinion would go against the absentees, for they would be placed in the position of obstructing business, and this position is always unpopular.

PRESSING THEIR CLAIMS.

Candidates for the Kansas Senatorship Making It Warm for the Governor. TOPEKA, Kan., Dec. 30 .- The struggle for the appointment to the seat in the United States Senate made vacant by the death of Senator Plumb has developed into a disgraceful scramble. The contest has not been a very dignified one from the start. but now it has degenerated into a fight which is quite as disgusting to the Governor, who will make the appointment, as it doubtless is to the people of Kansas and the outside world. Each candidate has established headquarters and maintains them much as if there was a whole Legislature to work upon instead of one poor Governor. The various candidates hold conferences, arrange trades, make and receive promises much after the fashion of a hot political election. The Governor now says he understands that he made a mistake in offering each man the opportunity of stating his claim to him. He ought, he says, to have made the appointment before the candidates had the opportunity to organize their forces.

There are very few new developments today. The Farmers' Alliance, through Chairman Chase, of its executive committee, sent a written demand to the Governor, this morning, that he call an exsuccessor to Senator Plumb. The fact that the present Legislature is controlled by the Farmers' Alliance, and that Governor Humphrey is a Republican, places anextra session out of the question entirely.

Delegations from all over the State are arriving to take up the fight of Maj. J. Indson. Notable among these are one from Leavenworth, composed of negroes, headed by the Hon. B. K. Bruce, and one from Lawrence, headed by John Brown, deelde these numerous there have also arrived here titions from all over the 5 his turn, coming at the bottom of the list as it is now constituted.

United States District Attorney Ady was the first candidate given a hearing to-day. He occupied the Governor's time from 11:30 in the morning to 1 o'clock in the afternoop. After the Governor had lunched he admitted the friends of Major Hudson, who urged their favorite's claims. It is intimated at the Governor's chamber that the appointment will be made on New Year's day.

The Senatorial Struggle in Ohio.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 30 .- The contest for offices in the gift of the two branches of the Legislature, which convenes on Monday next, is overshadowed by the senatorial struggle for a successor to Senator Sherman in the United States Senate. The candidates are ex-Governor Foraker and Senator Sherman, who wishes to succeed himself. The ex-Governor, with a full force of workers, arrived and began active operations last night, and Senator Sherman will come in from Washington tomorrow. The senatorial cancus will probably be held Thursday of next week and the two branches will vote separately for Senator Jan. 12 and on joint ballot the 13th. The managers on both sides are claiming abough votes to insure the senator pomine. enough votes to insure the caucus nomina-tion. There are two candidates for Speak-er of the House and the senatorial lines are pretty closely drawn on this contest, and a fair indication of the relative strength of the senatorial candidates will be had Saturday night when the House caucus is to to be held.

The Maryland Senstorships, BALTIMORE. Dec. 30 .- One week from to day the Legislature of Maryland will as semble. During the early part of the session the subject that will absorb the attention of the members will be the election of United States Senators. Arthur P. Gorman will succeed himself. He represents the western shore. It is the question who shall the eastern shore, that has been open for speculation. Several gentlemen across the bay have announced themselves as candidates for the distinguished honor, among them Governor Jackson, John B. Brown and James Aifred Pearce, but the man who evidently has developed the greatest strength and popularity in that section of the State is Col. John Walter Smith, who now represents Worcester county in the Farmer Elected Speaker in Kentucky. LOUISVILLE, Dec. 30. - The Kentucky Legislature met at noon to-day and elected W. M. Moore, of Cynthiana, Speaker. The contest was between Moore and Harvey Myers, of Covington. Moore is a farmer; was a member of the Missouri Legislature which met first after the adoption of the new Constitution, and had a work to perform similar to that of the present Kentucky Legislature. He was a confederate, and thrice made colonel. It was charged that Myers was a corporation attorney while Moore, though not an Alliance man, is in sympathy with many of its purposes.

Part of the Programme. Ballston, N. Y., Dec. 80.-Edward W Hoyt, Democrat, of Milton, will contest the seat of Harvey J. Donaldson, Repubican, of this village, in the State Senate.

A REAL LOVE STORY. Romantic Couple that Was Married and Di vorced Years Ago Attracting Attention.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal, MITCHELL, Ind., Dec. 30. - About ter cars ago James Scarlet and Belle Gibbons were married in Orange county, at the place where Lost river emerges from the ground. The marriage was a romantic affair, opposed by parents and performed at a neighbor's, where Belle had gone for a bucket of water. The city papers gave an account of it at the time and had photographs of the victims to Cupid's hy-meneal darts. The couple separated within the year and both were soon successful in finding another partner. Still happiness did not come with the change, Scarlet soon separated from his second wife, and Belle quit living with her second husband over a year since. They are now courting each other again at the old home, and, it is reported, are soon expected to be married

Plenty of Herring.

St. Johns, N. F., Dec. 80.—Advices from Bay de Nord and Sound island report that herring struck in very plentiful last week. Between twelve thousand and fifteen thonsend barrels were hauled in in one night at Sound island, and the merchants and packers are described as completly exhausted from overwork and loss of rest. All the salt-herring fleet are loaded there. wenty-four American frezzers were at Carbon and thirty seines were full of herring, ranging from three hundred to two thousand barrels. There is great activ and some crews have made a good winter's work already.

Opposed to Changing Their Name. PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 30 .- The Junior Order United American Mechanics is now voting on a change of name. One-tenth of the councils in this State have already been heard from, and the indications are that the vote to change the name will be overwhelmingly defeated. Up until noon to-day the vote in this State stood 1,200 for and 3,600 against. As Pennsylvania goes so goes the name. It is the opinion of the concervative members of the order that the vote to change the name will be defeated by a good majority.

Artist Louis Bernard Divorced. YANKTON, S. D. Dec. 30.-A decree divorce was granted to-day by Judge E. G Smith, of this judicial circuit, to Louis Bernard, of Mayence, Germany, the wellknown landscape painter. Bernard claimed desertion as the ground for his desire for separation. He was married in Germany in 1862, and in 1882 his wife left him, and they have continued to live apart since. There are three daughters, all above twenty years of age, with the mother Bernard left the city and will return at once to Ger-

light is expected to be thrown upon the Chilian affair from the results of an inquiry which will be held shortly in San Francisco. The Baltimore is expected to arrive in that port in a day or two, when an investigation will be made into the assault upon the sailors in Valparaiso, and the statement of those engaged in it will be secured. The orders for this inquiry have, it is believed, already been issued by the department, and will be handed to Captain Schley on his arrival. As is known, Captain Schley instituted an inquiry into the affair while lying off Valparaiso, which was conducted by a board of officers of the vessel and the results communicated to Judge Foster, who presided over the secret investigation pursued by the Chilian authorities under the request of the officials of the United States, and which investigation is still continuing, in an advanced stage, in Valparaiso. When the procurator or prosecuting attorney finishes his examination of Judge Foster's report, then the determination of the Chilian government, upon the demand for reparation made by the United States, will be communicated to the government and negotiations, which are now at a stand-still, waiting that step, will be prosecuted further. The particular object sought to be attained by the inquiry to be instituted upon the arrival of the Baltimore at San Francisco is not known, but it is supposed that the testimony developed will be used by the President, either in connection with what has already been gathered on the subject, or form the Mr. Cramp, the Philadelphia ship-builder, was here again to-day, and spent some time waiting for Secretary Tracy, but left without seeing him.

Senor Montt, the Chilian minister, called at the State Department at noon, but missed Secretary Blaine, who was at the wedding of Miss Rachel Sherman. They will probably have an interview to-mor-

Messages have been received from Val-paraiso to the effect that President Montr has not yet been able to satisfactorily arrange his Cabinet, and none has been appointed yet. The Chilian government has been informed by William R. Grace, of New York, head of the house with large interests in that country, that the United States will send an ultimatum, but this cannot be confirmed, nor, if true, can the date of its dispatch be given.

ENGLISHMEN DON'T WANT WAR. The news from Valparaiso confirms the view heretofore expressed in these dispatches, that British influences are decidedly adverse to permitting the relations of the United States and Chill to become ruptured and a conflict to occur. The British minister in Valparaiso yesterday called upon the Chilian Minister of Foreign Affairs and urged a conciliatory course of action, What was the result, of course, is not known, but, judging from the temper of Vaiparaiso utterances, it is not believed that the Chilian Minister promised a concessions to his British visitor. May be with a new Minister the outlook may be more peaceful. Among the measures taken by the American Navy Department, in view of the probable result of the present complications with Chili, is a series of reports of our naval attaches to legations abroad, showing what is being done by Chili abroad. These reports are being received and carefully examined at the department. No step taken by the South American republic lie escapes these naval representatives.

Secretary Tracy asked Mr. Abbott, chairman of the Carpegie-Phipps iron concern. to come to Washington for consultation as to the progress of work upon the armorplates for the vessels now in course of construction, and he was expected to arrive to-day, but last night the Secretary concluded it would not be necessary for him to come, and countermanded the order, One of the subjects considered at the Cabinet meeting yesterday, it is reported, was the presence of Balmaceda refugees in the American legation in Valparaiso, and it is said the matter gave the members of the Cabinet great concern, almost as much as it was represented Mr. Egan himself alt, who was compelled to maintain them in laxory as well as in idleness, not knowing but that the entire expense, in event of the fallure of Congress to reimburse him by appropriation, would fall upon his purse. It may be said that this is mere ranciful creation. If the refugees were discussed, which is not certain, the Cabinet was not disturbed by their presence at the legation. There they are going to remain, a prominent official declared to-day, until assured of peaceable departure, or until the Chilian government authorities deprive them of their present retreat. Until then, according to this official's statement, there does not seem to be room for doubt or discussion. Mr. Egan will be upheld in all that he has done by this government, and his protec-As to the matter of expense, that will not enter into consideration of the question.

Iron-Clad of the First Class. LA SEYNE, Dec. 30,-A newspaper correspondent visited the works of the Compaguie des Forges et Chantiers de la Seyne, near Toulon, yesterday morning, and found the Chilian ship of war, the Captain Pratt, afloat at her moorings, alongside where she was built. This ship has been described as a cruiser She is in reality a formidable armor-clad, and is described in the books of the Compagnie des Forges et Chantiers as a "vaisseau de guerre cuirasee de la deuxiemme classe."

It is fitted with powerful engines combining all the latest improvements, and is guaranteed to steam eighteen knots an honr. All its engines are now in working order, and if necessary it could steam out to sea at once, but it has been delayed by the non-arrival of its armament, which is coming from Havre. Also the commander, who has superseded the former one since the revolution in Chili, has ordered considerable changes - particularly with regard to the introduction of six formidable torpede tubes, system Canet one of which has already been
